Event Highlights

Cleantech Open Global Forum

January 28–29 // Los Angeles, CA

Come watch finalists from Cleantech Open's six US regions as they pitch to win the Cleantech Open Grand Prize, along with winners from other countries in their Global Ideas Program. This event will include nearly 100 start-ups driving innovation in environmental and sustainable technologies in areas ranging from energy, agriculture, water, transportation, and smart cities. Hosted at LACI, over 400 industry insiders are expected to attend this event. Mintz has been a proud sponsor of Cleantech Open Northeast since its inception. Our own Tom Burton judged the program's Northeast Regional Finals at Horizon18. For more information and to register, click here. Good luck to all finalists!

NECEC's Emerging Trends Series: Visions for a Clean Energy Economy

January 30 // Boston, MA

Join our friends at NECEC to kick off the New Year by hearing from some of the region's thought leaders about their visions of the future and the path to a clean energy economy. Mintz has been a proud sponsor of NECEC since its inception. For more information and to register, click here.
