We presented our first in a series of webinars digging into the California Consumer Privacy Act. If you registered, you should have received a link to the recording and the materials. If you missed it, we'll help you out. To access the webinar recording, please click here. The materials can be downloaded here.

Our next installment is coming up on March 27th and will address similarities and differences between the EU's General Data Protection Regulation and the CCPA. Registration for that webinar is here.
